Subject: OECD Conference on Economics of Climate Change, 18 September 2009, Paris

Dear WPGSP Delegates,

As was mentioned at the October 2008 joint meeting of WPGSP and the Economic Policy Committee's Working Party 1 (WPI), OECD will be organising a Conference on the Economics of Climate Change in 2009. Initially it was planned that the Conference would be organised in March 2009, but due to scheduling conflicts, it has now been postponed and will be held on 18 September 2009. The Conference will now be an opportunity to highlight the results of both the phase 1 and phase 2 work under the joint WPGSP-WPI project on the economics of mitigation, as well as other relevant work at the OECD.

Let me take this opportunity to remind you that the next meeting of the WPGSP is planned for 19-20 May 2009, including a joint session on 20 May with WPI to discuss the analysis of the phase 2 work on the economics of climate change mitigation.
